THIRD SEASON OF 'FAMILY TRAVEL WITH COLLEEN KELLY' NOW IN PRODUCTION, COMING ON THE HEELS OF SUCCESSFUL SEASON TWO THAT AIRED IN MORE THAN 90 PERCENT OF U.S.

CHICAGO: "Family Travel with Colleen Kelly," a National Public Television series, continues to prove its wide appeal, with a successful Season Two run that aired in more than 90 percent of the country and a third season set to premiere this spring. Host Colleen Kelly and her crew are shooting the new episodes this fall, giving viewers an in-depth look at the adventure and family fun that awaits them at must-see destinations throughout the U.S. and abroad.

The recently announced Season Three destinations include the Wild Atlantic Way of Ireland's West Coast; Oahu, Hawaii; Amelia Island, Fla.; Pittsburgh; Key West, Fla.; Frankenmuth, Mich.; and Panama City Beach, Fla. In addition, for the first time, the show will explore RV camping, with Thousand Trails and Encore RV Resorts in historic and scenic Gettysburg, Hershey and Lancaster, Pennsylvania, as well as the Florida Keys.

"I love the variety of the amazing family destinations we're visiting in Season Three," Kelly says. "We're traveling near and far to bring our viewers outdoor adventure, scenic views, wildlife encounters, beautiful beaches, incredible dining, and cultural and historical attractions that help parents use travel as a means of educating their kids while creating lifelong memories."

Season Two episodes continue to air throughout the country on National Public Television, featuring Switzerland; Wales; Pensacola, Fla.; Boston; Chicago; The Palm Beaches, Fla.; Lake of the Ozarks, Mo.; Emerald Coast, Fla., and the Saguenay-Lac-Saint-Jean region of Quebec. Full episodes and destination blogs also are available on the "Family Travel" website, including Season One, which featured New Orleans, Los Angeles, San Antonio and a Carnival cruise, to name a few.

In addition to hosting "FamilyTravel," Kelly has built a reputation as a go-to travel expert. She has had a busy year sharing travel tips and destinations and addressing timely travel issues on TV and radio programs, in print and digital publications and at high-profile conferences. Among her many credits, she is a regular contributor to WGN Morning News in Chicago, she recently appeared on Hallmark Channel's national "Home & Family" show, and she was featured in the Celebrity Traveler column in the Chicago Tribune and many other newspapers throughout the country. With the show and other media exposure, Kelly's total reach for 2015 is projected to be more than 50 million impressions.

Co-executive producer Tricia Fusilero says she is pleased with the following that Kelly has built and with the growth of the show. "Family Travel with Colleen Kelly" airs on 366 stations, including 47 of the top 50 markets, and has been picked up by APT Worldwide for international distribution. The show has incorporated several sponsors and partners, including Season Two

About Colleen Kelly: Colleen Kelly is a parent, travel writer and seasoned traveler who grew up exploring the world with her family. She has experienced the United States from coast to coast and has visited 30 foreign countries. Her vast knowledge of travel made her realize the need for a new kind of travel experience and focus—one that is centered around the family. So she co-created "Family Travel with Colleen Kelly" to provide parents with exciting destinations and new ideas for fun and educational travel with their families. Kelly is host and co-executive producer of the show, as well as co-owner of Travel Film Productions, LLC. Kelly also was the co-creator and Emmy-nominated executive producer of NBC5 Chicago's successful "24/7 City Secrets," and she has been a correspondent on the show. Kelly regularly provides travel expertise on Chicago and national TV newscasts and radio programs, as well as in print and digital publications. She frequently speaks at travel industry conferences and events.

About "Family Travel with Colleen Kelly": The show is written and produced by Travel Film Productions, LLC, a Chicago-based, multi-media production company. High-energy, 30-minute episodes give viewers a behind-the-scenes tour of popular family destinations, as well as intriguing, lesser-known locales. Colleen Kelly explores local activities, cultural and educational attractions, historical sites, dining, shopping and family fun. The show also shares expert travel tips and insights to help families take the hassle out of planning their vacations. Kelly often travels with her two young daughters, who appear in the show.
